

Black History Month

Aim

- To learn about Black History Month and how it is celebrated.

What Is History?

History is when we learn about things in the past.

Events in the past have already happened.

We might learn about events from many hundreds of years ago or those that happened more recently.

Something that happened yesterday is already in the past.

What Is Black History Month?

October

celebrate achievements

schools and museums

TV programmes and articles

Reclaiming Narratives

Standing Firm in Power and Pride

The theme of this year's UK Black History Month is 'Standing Firm in Power and Pride.'

'Standing Firm in Power and Pride' emphasises the remarkable impact of Black leaders, activists, and pioneers whose contributions have played a vital role in shaping history.

This year's theme also inspires us to envision a future marked by ongoing empowerment, unity and progress.

What is Racism?

How Did Black History Month Start?

Significant Black People in History

Ignatius Sancho

Mary Seacole

Alice Coachman

Barack Obama

Do you know any other Black people who
we could celebrate?

Time to Think

A hand is shown holding a black tablet. The tablet screen has a light blue background with a white rectangular area in the center. Inside the white area is a quote. Below the quote is a blue rectangular box containing the name 'Michelle Obama'. The background of the entire image is a stylized world map with green landmasses and blue oceans.

‘History has shown us that courage can be contagious and hope can take on a life of its own.’

Michelle Obama

